PCE Jeopardy

A Chapter Team-Building Game

Is your knowledge of PCE in j*eopardy*? Test your chapter understanding of the P.E.O. Program for Continuing Education while enjoying this engaging team-building exercise. Game categories include: PCE Eligibility, PCE Grant Conditions and the PCE Online Applications Process.

Preparations before the Meeting:
- Print copy of category pages for moderator
- Print copies of the score sheet for teams to keep a tally of their earned points
- Gather supplies:
  - ✓ Noise makers (kazoos, hand bells, whistles, etc.)
  - ✓ Prizes (i.e. gold foil coins for first place team, silver wrapped kisses for second, lemon drops for third
  - ✓ Pair of dice

Set up:
- Form three teams and provide each with a score sheet.
- Give each team a distinctive noisemaker.

Playing the Game:
- One member of each team rolls the dice to determine which team goes first; highest number wins the call. The winning team chooses the category and number (i.e.: "We'll take Eligibility for ten").
- The PCE chair, serving as the moderator, should keep the pace fast and fun as she reads the answer(s) for the requested number(s).
- The designated team provides the question to correspond with the answer.
- If the designated team does not know the question or provides an incorrect question, the team that responds with their noise maker next states the question; if correct that team continues with another requested number; if incorrect, the remaining team tries for the correct question.
- When none of the teams know the question to the answer, the moderator shares the correct question.
- Continue the answer/question exchange until all categories and questions are covered.
- Add scores and award prizes accordingly
